“Getting to Know” Seminar — Sunday, October 21

Every year a large majority of Americans who die do so without ever having prepared a valid Last Will and Testament or Revocable Living Trust.

For the past three decades between 70 and 80 percent die intestate. When that happens the government determines the future of someone’s minor children and assets.

This unhappy statistic is especially astounding since state and federal laws provide significant incentives for the preparation of a Will or Living Trust. These incentives are designed to make it easy for your own personal wishes to be known and followed – wishes that deal with child custody, property distribution and a legacy of values. Not to mention the fact that, in many cases, a carefully planned Will serves to actually minimize costs related to settling an estate.

Parents of school children can benefit greatly from those who can speak knowledgeably about this.

Join in Sunday, October 21 at 1:00 p.m. for a one-hour seminar with Bill Burmeister, Michigan District-Church Extension Gift Planning Counselor, to learn the importance of writing a will or trust and how to get started.

Learn how to witness through your own last will and testament so your children and grandchildren will inherit the blessings of your wisdom.

What is it about the preparation of one’s personal wishes – the purpose of a Will or Living Trust – that Americans avoid it in such resounding numbers? Whatever the reasons, we will help you overcome them.

Bill Burmeister has superior experience in guiding people who have estate planning questions.

He will help you explore various possibilities for fulfilling your legacy goals and considering ministry gifts at the same time. There is no cost or obligation to attend. A noon luncheon sponsored by the OWLs will precede the one-hour seminar.
